Answer key

Every answer carries the reason behind it. Read the reason for the questions you got right as well — that is where you find out whether you were right for the right reason.

A. Multiple choice

1. B) have got — I, you, we and they take have got; only he, she and it take has got.
2. A) has got — A third-person singular subject takes has got.
3. C) Have — Have got makes its own question by moving have to the front — no do is used.
4. B) hasn't — He is third person singular, so the negative is hasn't got.
5. D) have — The short answer repeats have, not got and not do.
6. C) Have you got a pen? — Have got inverts by itself; adding do gives the sentence two auxiliaries.
7. C) have got — Parents is plural, so the form is have got.
8. D) Has — Your flat is one singular thing, so the question begins with has.
9. D) haven't — We is plural, so the negative is haven't got.
10. B) I have got a headache. — Have got and have mean exactly the same thing for possession and states.

B. Fill in the blank

1. have — I takes have got; only he, she and it take has got.
2. has — A third-person singular subject takes has got.
3. Have — Have got makes its own question by putting have in front of the subject.
4. hasn't — She is third person singular, so the negative is hasn't got.
5. have — We is plural, so the form is have got.
6. Has — Your car is one singular thing, so the question begins with has.
7. haven't — They is plural, so the negative is haven't got.
8. have — The speaker is I, so the form is have got. Only he, she and it take has.

C. Sentence building

1. I have got two older sisters.
2. She has got beautiful green eyes.
3. Have you got a minute?
4. He hasn't got a car.
