Answer key

Every answer carries the reason behind it. Read the reason for the questions you got right as well — that is where you find out whether you were right for the right reason.

A. Multiple choice

1. C) Do — You takes do, and the auxiliary comes before the subject in a question.
2. D) Does — Your sister is a singular third-person subject, so the auxiliary is does.
3. D) Does he play tennis? — After does the main verb reverts to its base form — the -s has already been used up.
4. B) don't — They is plural, so the negative auxiliary is don't.
5. A) doesn't — She is third person singular, so the negative is doesn't.
6. C) do — An English short answer repeats the auxiliary, not the main verb.
7. C) doesn't — The short answer repeats the auxiliary in its negative form: doesn't.
8. D) Do — Parents is plural, so the auxiliary is do.
9. B) ___ you a student? — A sentence with be makes its own question by moving be to the front — adding do would give it two auxiliaries.
10. A) Does — It is third person singular, so the auxiliary is does.

B. Fill in the blank

1. Do — You takes do, and the auxiliary comes before the subject in a question.
2. Does — A singular third-person subject takes does, and the main verb stays bare.
3. don't — I takes don't, and the main verb keeps its base form.
4. doesn't — He is third person singular, so the negative auxiliary is doesn't.
5. don't — A short answer repeats the auxiliary rather than the main verb.
6. does — The same auxiliary in a positive statement adds emphasis and contradicts what was just said. It is third person singular, so does.
7. Do — Parents is plural, so the auxiliary is do.
8. doesn't — She takes doesn't, which carries the -s so speak does not.

C. Sentence building

1. Do you like spicy food?
2. Does she work on Fridays?
3. I don't understand this question.
4. He doesn't eat meat or fish.
5. Do your parents speak English?
