Answer key

Every answer carries the reason behind it. Read the reason for the questions you got right as well — that is where you find out whether you were right for the right reason.

A. Multiple choice

1. B) a few — Friends is countable, so the small positive quantity is a few.
2. A) a little — Sugar is uncountable, so a little is used.
3. B) too — Too plus an adjective means more than is wanted.
4. A) enough — Enough comes after an adjective.
5. C) enough — Enough comes before a noun.
6. D) too many — People is countable, so the excess is expressed by too many.
7. A) too much — Coffee is uncountable, so the excess is too much.
8. D) She has little money. — Without the article, little is negative and means almost none.
9. B) too / to — Too + adjective + to + verb expresses impossibility.
10. A) Few — Few without the article is negative and works with countable nouns.

B. Fill in the blank

1. a few — People is countable, and the meaning is a small positive number.
2. a little — Water is uncountable, so the small quantity is a little.
3. too — Too plus an adjective means more than is wanted.
4. enough — Enough comes after an adjective.
5. enough — Enough comes before a noun.
6. many — Cars is countable, so the excess is too many.
7. much — Sugar is uncountable, so the excess is too much.
8. Few — Few without the article is negative and means almost none.

C. Sentence building

1. I have a few questions for you.
2. Add a little salt to the soup.
3. This coffee is too hot to drink.
4. She is not tall enough for that.
