Answer key

Every answer carries the reason behind it. Read the reason for the questions you got right as well — that is where you find out whether you were right for the right reason.

A. Multiple choice

1. C) for — Ten years is a length of time, so it takes for.
2. D) since — Monday is a starting point, so it takes since.
3. D) since — Since can be followed by a whole clause naming when something began.
4. A) since — Breakfast names the moment the period started.
5. A) for — Thirty years is a duration, so for is correct.
6. D) have — A how long question about a continuing situation takes the present perfect.
7. C) since — 2020 is a point in time, so it takes since.
8. D) for — Ages is treated as a length of time, so it takes for.
9. B) He has lived in Baku for five years. — The present perfect keeps the situation open into the present.
10. C) since — Two o'clock names the moment the waiting began.

B. Fill in the blank

1. for — Four years is a length of time.
2. since — Thursday is the point when the period began.
