A. Multiple choice

1. D) myself — The subject and the object are the same person, so a reflexive is required.
2. A) yourselves — Everyone here means more than one person, so the plural form is used.
3. B) herself — The teacher and the learner are the same person.
4. A) each other — The help goes between them, so each other is correct.
5. C) I feel tired. — Feel is one of the verbs English never uses with a reflexive.
6. D) by himself — By + reflexive means alone or without company.
7. A) themselves — Themselves is the plural third-person form; theirselves does not exist.
8. D) yourself — Addressing one person, and the emphatic use means without help.
9. D) itself — Objects and things have no gender, so the reflexive form is itself.
10. B) ourselves — Enjoy takes a reflexive in English, and we is plural.

B. Fill in the blank

1. myself — The subject and the object are the same person.

5. ourselves — The emphatic reflexive stresses that nobody else was involved.
6. herself — By + reflexive means alone.
7. itself — Animals and objects take itself.
8. yourselves — More than one person is addressed, so the plural form is needed.
