Answer key

Every answer carries the reason behind it. Read the reason for the questions you got right as well — that is where you find out whether you were right for the right reason.

A. Multiple choice

1. D) who — Who is used for people.
2. A) which — Which is used for things.
3. B) where — Where is used for places.
4. B) whose — Whose shows possession.
5. A) The film that I saw was long. — The relative pronoun replaces the object, so no second pronoun is needed.
6. C) which — A train is a thing, so it takes which or that.
7. C) who — Who refers to a person.
8. D) where — Where refers to a place.
9. D) that — That works for both people and things in defining clauses.
10. C) who — People are human, so the relative pronoun is who or that, never which.

B. Fill in the blank

1. who — Who refers to a person.
2. which — A film is a thing, so it takes which or that.
3. where — Where refers to the place of the action.
4. whose — Whose shows possession.
5. which — A bus is a thing, so which or that is used.
6. where — The shop is the place the buying happens.
7. who — Students are people, so who is used.
8. whose — Whose links the roof to the house that owns it.

C. Sentence building

1. That's the woman who lives next door.
2. This is the book which changed everything.
3. That's the café where we first met.
4. He is the man whose car broke down.
5. The train which goes to Batumi is late.
